DO WE FIGHT GERMANY?

German Fleet Said To Be Coming To America

INSTEAD OF GOING TO CHINA.

Prominent German Financier is Authority for the Statement--It Lacks Confirmation.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Philadelphia, Dec. 20—The Philadelphia Record this morning published the astouding news that Germany has taken the initial steps toward a war with the United States. The article is printed on the authority of a prominent German financier who is now visiting here. He declares that Germany's mysterious fleet now under the command of Prince Henry is enroute to threaten American territory instead of Chinese possessions.

WHERE PRINCE HENRY IS.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Osborne Isle of Wright, Dec. 20—Prince Henry, of Prussia, slept at Osborne after visiting the Queen and returned aboard the Deutchland this morning. If the weather permits coaling the Prince will resume his journey to China tomorrow. The customary salutes were exchanged this morning.

FIRE EARLY THIS MORNING.

Storage Warehouse of the Southern Varnish Co. Burns.

At half past three o'clock this morning an alarm was turned in and promptly all the bells and whistles in town began to raise an uproar that presumably left few people in town asleep.

The clouds over the southern end of the city were red with the glare of fire and it looked as though a good section of the city might be in flames.

The hose wagon got out promptly, as did The Telegram reporter, but only to find that the fire was outside of the town and no water in reach. The hose wagon returned in disgust.

The storage warehouse of the Southern Varnish Company, situated on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway, was burning. It contained a number of large tanks filled with the fine varnish made by this company, about $5,000 worth in all, together with a large quantity of the raw materials used the manufacture of varnish. These materials being very inflammable made such a blaze as is seldom seen and had the building been in reach of fire plugs would have made it impossible to extinguish it. Fortunately there was no other building near enough to ignite and, the roofs being wet, the flying sparks did no damage.

The total loss is $8,000 and the insurance $3,500. It was the intention of the owners to have increased the insurance this week. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to have resulted from safe cracking. The large safe in which were the books of the firm together with accounts and bills was found to have been blown open. The explosion probably ignited the inflammable materials stored in the building.

WE HOPE NOT.

It is Reported that Dr. Robinson Has Hydrophobia.

Dr. Robinson, who was bitten on the ear by a rabid cat at Guilford College several days ago, is in Baltimore where he went to take the Pasteur treatment. He was bitten by the same cat which bit the little boy David Moore, who died on Thursday morning, mention of which was made in this paper.

The terrible news that the dread disease had developed in the case of Dr. Robinson, at Baltimore, reached Greensboro today. We sincerely trust that it is a mistake.

Pitching Toward Sodom.

Rev. J. W. Lee, the evangelist, preached an able sermon last night at West Market street Methodist church on the theme, "Pitching Toward Sodom." This was a fertile topic and the eloquent divine held his hearers spell bound for three-quarters of an hour. He spoke of the tendency of the men of today to subordinate everything to the one end of amassing wealth as the same in principle as Lot's pitching toward Sodom because the pasturage was good there. He declared that if Lot were alive today he would be considered the shrewdest of business men. The sermon was eminently timely.

IN A BREAD WAGON.

A Jolly Excursionist from Moore County Takes a Ride.

That was a good-natured, jolly crowd from Moore county in town Saturday. They came on various errands—some to do shopping for Christmas, others to see the sights, others because the fare was cheap, and still others to take care of their friends; and some of them needed taking care of.

We have no street cars in Greensboro, unfortunately, and several of the boys got very tired of walking. The city is large, you know, and they had to see it all—that was what they came for. Yes, they became very tired and in the course of their rounds, saw so much that they kept buying and loading up and tanking—and the tanking act did the business.

Of course they were unused to it; they don't do that way down in Moore. When they were unable to proceed further, they were taken care of by the kindhearted guardians of the city until nearly time for their train to leave.

There were only three or four of them and one was yet unable to walk. There was no time to be lost and the excursion managers, who had generously procurred their release, hastily glanced around for a carriage and there was not a carriage in sight. A bread wagon, which was seen passing at this critical period, was hailed and pressed into service. Hastily dumping the tired passenger into this, a friend climbed in to hold him, there being no cushions or pillows, and away the rude vehicle rattled over the stone pavement, reaching the South Elm crossing in time to flag the excursion as it was pulling out.

About the same time, two other excursionists, who had been told that the train would not leave on time, were leisurely enjoying an oyster stew in a restaurant near the depot. This enjoyment was cut short by the cry "the excursion is leaving," and rushing out saw a train leaving over the Southern. With handkerchiefs unfolded they flagged this train only to find they were losing time. The engineer directed them to the C. F. and Y. V., and making a break in that direction reached the South Elm crossing just in time to catch a glimpse of the rear coach as it disappeared behind the buildings.

The laugh was on the boys and they had to wait for a through freight train, which left here after midnight.

After summing it all up, we are of the opinion the boys will be more careful when they visit the city on the next annual excursion.

A number of packages, which were forgotten in the hurry of catching the train, have been sent for and we hope will reach their destinaton in time for Christmas.

That any person violating said ordinance shall upon conviction be fined $10.00 and it shall be lawful for and the duty of the policemen of said city to kill any dog or slut running at large on the streets of said city during the time that this ordinance is in force. Introduced by Shaw.

TO BE ARGUED JANUARY 8TH.

Question of Constitutionality of Tonnage on Fertilizers.

The question of the Constitutionality the tonnage on fertilizers will be argued before the United States Supreme Court January 8th, if Justice McKenna is promptly confirmed so as to give a full bench.

Messrs. Busbee & Battle, who formerly were counsel in this case, and J. C. L. Harris, the present counsel, say they are confident the court will decide in the State's favor.

If the decision is adverse the whole agricultural department will be knocked out until the Legislature can meet, and the Agricultural College, which gets considerable aid from the department will also be injured.—Morning Post.

The deed for St. Mary's School in Raleigh to the Protestant Episcopal Church in North Carolina is signed by the heirs of the late Paul C. Cameron. The amount to be paid is $50,000—one-third in cash, the balance in 20 years.

Col. Parsons Takes Kassala.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rome, Dec. 20.—Col. Parsons, who started from Suakine in the early part of November with a British force 1,500 strong to take over the town of Kassala from the Italians, has arrived at that place and taken possession of it in the interest of Egypt.

Talk Good Roads.

This is the season when the man from rural parts feels the necessity for good roads most. From now until the first of May every man who drives into town will do so through mud from six to twelve inches deep. The roads would be called impassable any where else than in this state.

It is reported that the county Commissioners have in contemplation in the early spring a decided move in the direction of better roads. It it be true, as it doubtless is, they will place the city and the county under lasting obligations. Our roads are an object lesson now that is more eloquent than words as an argument for macadam.

Wanted Negro Jurors.

A Kansas City despatch says: Joseph McCoy, chairman of the republican county committee, created a sensation by excepting to a jury in the Circuit Court because there were no negroes upon it. McCoy appeared as attorney for Ed. Temple, a negro charged with robbery. By a decision of the Missouri Supreme Court a negro is not entitled to demand trial by a negro jury, but McCoy holds that the county has no right to exclude the names of negroes from the jury wheel, as it does now. The question will be argued tomorrow.

Ladies Orchestra Tonight.

Clara Schumann Ladies Orchestra arrived this morning, and will appear at the Academy tonight. The press notices where they have been are very high in praise of this splendid concert company. They do not confine themselves to a high or classical order of music, but the program is interspersed with laughable and catchy airs. The encores are particularly lively and pleasing.

The curtain will ring up at 8:30 in order to give a number of people a chance to go, who could not otherwise be there.

The Wheat War.

A Chicago despatch to the New York Sun says:

P. D. Armour delivered to the Leiter-French syndicate 1,000,000 bushels of cash wheat. In all, the Leiter people took 1,250,000 bushels, for which they paid cash. Mr. Armour also has several million bushels sold for delivery before the end of the month, and Weare has been a good seller on the recent bulge against purchases in other markets not yet delivered here. There was money in delivering wheat today. Many warehouse receipts were about to expire, and the quarter of a cent extra storage which Leiter had to pay for the single day will cost the young millionaire just $2,500.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

THE REWARD OF APOSTASY.

The late campaign in Maryland attracted national attention. Most readers are tolerably familiar with the salient features and the result.

The Baltimore Sun, fostered and supported by the democratic party, deliberately turned its guns against the party, in the city and the state, because of a malignant spite against Senator Gorman and, under the guise of a political pharisee, aided in defeating the democratic party.

Mr. Malster, a republican, was elected to the mayoralty of Baltimore and in the first moments of high elation, with the flicker of bon-fires still on his face and the pressure of traitors' fingers still warm on his, he uttered these words "In the presence then, of these eminent and honored representatives of Baltimore's citizenship, I accept the public trust of the mayoralty in the same good faith in which it was bestowed upon me, and God being my helper, and the people of this city supporting me, its affairs shall be administered by me for the public good, and the obligations of my office shall be sacredly fulfilled."

Very beautiful, very patriotic! And from editor-in-chief to the devil of a day the Sun force fell to and hugged itself, while the marriage de convenience of republicanism and apostate democracy was celebrated in column leaders and tripple heads. But after all this effusion of bon comraderie came the inevitable reaction. The light of enthusiasm waned and flickered and the sense of security in office crept upon and paralyzed the sense of obligation. The bills for support in his own ranks began to come in and now hear Mayor Malster, speaking at a club of the faithful:

"When we come to fight the natural enemy all republicans will be found to be in line. I ask you to get together and fight in harmony. Let unity prevail. There are men here who deserve all that can be bestowed upon them by the party. Don't let us fail to give them something. I will give you what I can. Above all, I ask you to create a spirit of harmony. He who serves his party first serves his State the best. We are all one family. If we are united no power in this Commonwealth can defeat us."

And now the Sun inquires "Are there two Mr. Malsters"? The mighty "pull" which the Sun was to exert on the new administration vanishes in thin air and down from the self-erected pedestal of autocrat and arbiter in city affairs it topples. The traitor has been betrayed. May a like reward await a like betrayal, everywhere and always.

"He who serves his party first serves his State the best." That has been the real motto of the republican party since its inception. None knew this better than the Sun. That it is so still, witness the onslaught of republicans on national civil service and the disgraceful scramble and trade for place in our own state.

Cuba is doing her poor best to show that when it comes to the butchering business Spain is not the only blot on civilization.

An exchange contains the following bit of news:

"The 'four thousand Irish donkeys' case, now before the Queen's Bench Court, is likely to become famous. The donkeys were sent to the Transvaal to take the place of mules, and, not proving efficient, the consignees refused to pay on the ground that they were asses of inferior quality. Mr. Bray, Q. C., is among the counsel employed."

They will have to pay in the end. There is not a large city in this whole country that does not have a contingent of Irish donkies, quite as large, that it pays for pretty dearly. The Transvaal should try a few Irish bulls.

And now comes the rumor that Dr. Joyful Laughter Ramsay is to be transferred, along with Mr. Mewboorne, to the penitentiary section of the pie table. Such a course is sheer desecration. The invaluble taste of Keeper Burns should be invoked to prevent such a political solecism. It makes our heart ache to think of it. It is worse than blasting up the palisades or painting 'Castoria" on the pyramids. Imagine poor Zeke Bilkins being compelled to irradiate gloomy prison cells by furlongs of his choicest humor and of the bubbling, liquid, rippling ha, ha of Dr. Joyful Laughter being forced to ricochet down penitentiary corridors. Perish the thought!

The report that English regiments showed the white feather in the last battle with the Afridis is to be taken cum grano. It may be true, but we doubt it. The English soldier is not a coward, as he has proved time and again on the battle fields of every continent, and no where more frequently than in India.

The selection of St. Louis for the meeting of the populist national committee lends color to the assertions of the plutocratic press that populism is drifting toward anarchy. It will doubtless select Milwaukee for permanent headquarters.

It is possible that Senator Gorman may be called on to sandwich his new year's resolutions with letters of condolence to Mr. Hanna. He is the only man in the country who could rise to the situation.

Mr. Spofford is a most learned librarian but a rather poor business man. Mr. Gage may be a good business man but a decidedly poor Secretary of the Treasury.

Before Germany is through with the Chinese affair she may recall the after dinner speeches at Kiel with something of the feeling of the campaign orator after the election.

It is probable that the local earthquake shock felt in Richmond was only His Excellency, Governor O'Ferrall, preparing a sur-rejoinder to Senator Daniel.

Topeka, Kansas, has a seven-year-old lawyer. But that is nothing. Kansas has statesmen much younger.

The European policy toward China just now may be characterized as "muchee grabee."

"THIEF!" CRIED THE PARROT.

Police Called in by a Parrot Which Speask Spanish and English.

While Policeman Taylor, of the West Forty-seventh street station, was passing John Bott's bird store at 599 Ninth avenue, he heard the parrots inside chatting and screaming at a great rate.

Before he got out of hearing a parrot who had been screaming in Spanish translated the cry of warning and screamed: "Thief! Go way, you thief!"

Taylor went back to the store to investigate. He had no trouble in entering, for the lock had been forced and the bolts pushed back.

After a long search Taylor finally looked under a cot bed in a rear room and there found the thief.

The prisoner was locked up. He said his name was Daniel O'Brien, of 630 W. Forty-fifth street. Nothing had been stolen.

O'Brien was arraigned in the court and held in $1,000 bail for trial.—New York Sun.

BOARD IS NON-COMMITTAL.

Report on the Accident at Garrisons Last October.

Albany, Dec. 18—The board of railroad commissioners today handed down a report of its investigation into the causes of the accident on the New York Central railroad at Garrisons on October 24 last. The commissioners arrive at the conclusion that the train was wrecked either by derailment, which destroyed the embankment, or that the embankment gave way and threw the train into the river.

The board recommends that the force of track walkers on the Hudson river division of the New York Central be increased so as to provide a constant and sufficient system of watching and warning along the line at all times.

Will Preach Without Pay.

New York, Dec. 19—James Farrar, pastor of the First Reformed church, of Brooklyn, has determined, as soon as matters can be adjusted, to give his life to the preaching of the gospel without pay. Dr. Farrar, during the week of prayer, will hold services every evening and will explain the meaning of the Keswick movement, to which he has given his whole allegiance. The salary which he relinquishes is $6000 a year.

So-Called Temperance Drinks.

Not long ago attention was called in London to the popularity among tipplers of certain so-called temperance beverages, an analysis of which showed that they contained more alcohol than many straight out goods in black bottles.

The Massachusetts board of health has recently made a similar discovery concerning tonic and bitters, particularly those recommended as "temperance" drinks, in which the percentage of alcohol was found to vary from 13.2 to 41.6.—Medical Recorder.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Lubbock and the Ants.

Sir John Lubbock has gone to the ant again, and, if he keeps up his visits and others imitate him, that interesting insect will become useless for Sunday School purposes. Sir John succeeded in getting fifty ants helplessly drunk and then placed them outside an ant-hill. The sober ants came out, picked up their friends, and put them to bed to sleep off the effects of Sir John's liquor; the strangers, however, they sternly rolled over into the ditch.—New Sun.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.
